Readjustment Counseling Service

After war, some veterans experience psychological and social distress and difficulties in readjusting to civilian life. In 1979, the Department of Veterans Affairs established Vet Centers to assist Vietnam-era veterans with such problems. Congress later expanded Vet Center services to include combat veterans of other conflicts. These services are available at Vet Center in all 50 states, Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands and Guam.

Services Available

- ◆ Individual Counseling
- ◆ Marital and Family Counseling
- ◆ VA benefits assistance and referral
- ◆ Substance abuse counseling and referrals
- ◆ Primary health care for basic medical needs
- ◆ Pre-employment assistance and employment counseling
- ◆ Discharge upgrade information
- ◆ Community, social service and medical referrals
- ◆ Sexual trauma/harassment counseling (veterans of both genders, all eras)
- ◆ Bereavement Counseling for families of service members who die on active duty

The Vet Center also has a network of federal, state, city and community resources to help you. We will try to address any concerns or problems you bring to us.

At the Vet Center, you can expect help from professional counselors who will treat you with respect and understanding. Many of the counselors are also war veterans, so they understand your problems first hand, and have the training and skills to help solve them.

There is no charge for the assistance you receive at the Vet Center because of your sacrifices and efforts for this country. Veterans applying for assistance are asked to bring a copy of their Military Separation or Military Discharge (DD214) with them.
