

C. Opportunity Zones

Boonchairi gave a reminder about the locations of the three opportunity zones in Calvert County. She also gave a brief overview on what opportunity zones are.

D. Ratify Text Amendment 19-03: Public Events/Public Assemblies on Farmland and Rental Facilities on Farms

Judy Mackall provided an update on the status of Text Amendment 19-03. On motion by DeStefano and seconded by Eitel, the EDAC's letter sent in response to the request for comments to the text amendment was ratified.

VI. OLD BUSINESS

A. Business Appreciation Week (BAW) and Beaches Business Walk Wrap Up/Results

Kathy MacAdams gave a brief overview of BAW 2019 and summarized the feedback. She also discussed the Beaches Business Walk and invited the members to participate in the Solomons Walk in September.

B. Comprehensive Plan/Zoning Ordinance/Transportation Plan Updates

Mary Beth Cook announced that the Board of County Commissioners would be holding another public hearing in July on the Comprehensive Plan. She also mentioned that the Zoning Ordinance update will follow the Comprehensive Plan once it is approved and that the consultant is in place to begin work on that update. Cook shared with the group that she continues to accept any requests for edits or revisions to the Zoning Ordinance for consideration in the upcoming update. Cook shared that the Transportation Plan is currently being worked on and that a work session with the Planning Commission is upcoming.

C. Calvert County Ethics Commission Training Reminder

The group was reminded to sign up for Ethics training if they have not already done so.

VII. PUBLIC COMMENT

No members or the public attended and no comment was taken.

VIII. NEXT MEETING

The consensus of the group was to postpone the next EDAC meeting to coincide with the Solomons Business Walk on Friday, September 13, 2019.

IX. ADJOURNMENT

With there being no other business, a motion to adjourn was made by DeStefano at 11:03 a.m. The motion was seconded by Kasia Sweeney, and carried.
